

Champion Lead Testing Statement

The manufacturer participates in vigorous testing and quality assurance measures to ensure that all of our products meet or significantly exceed Consumer Protection Safety Council (CPSC) guidelines. These measures include both in-house and independent testing of our products for durability, colorfastness, and lead content. The CPSC has determined that PVC materials should test less than 200ppm for lead content to ensure consumer safety. All Champion blinds are manufactured within this limits.